

- Requested a Council Special Meeting be scheduled for Friday March 1 at noon to get Council approval of a supplemental agreement for repairs to the Lowell Creek Tunnel.
- Noted a community meeting regarding North Forest Acres/ Japanese Creek Levee on March 12 in the Bear Mountain Conference Room at the SeaLife Center.

Clark asked that the Council be given a report by March 25 to track how the grant funds were being spent by Seward Ship's Drydock.

Other Reports, Announcements, and Presentations. Seward Centennial Coordinator Sandy Wassilie and Nome Mayor Leo Rasmussen report on Centennial Activities.

Seward Centennial Coordinator Sandy Wassilie thanked the Council for selecting her as the Centennial Coordinator. She stated she had attended a number of meetings and had been working as the City liaison with other interested groups. Wassilie noted that there were draft goals and a calendar outlining some themes and events for 2003.

Nome Mayor Leo Rasmussen gave an overview of Nome's Centennial and stated that the main focus of Seward's Centennial should be to bring people back to Seward.

Citizens' comments on agenda items not scheduled for public hearing and items other than those appearing on the agenda.

Council Member David Brossow was excused from the Meeting at 8:10 p.m.

Debra Altermatt, 1703 Iron Drive, spoke against Jim Pruitt's request to lease a portion of land from the City.

Debra Carter, 700 5th Avenue, read a letter from her husband, Paul Carter, requesting the City of Seward lease, sell or trade Lot 1, Block 5 to his business, The Charter Option, in exchange for two public bathrooms.

Items other than those appearing on the agenda

David Bonaud, Mile 1 Nash Road, expressed his disgust at the condition of the Jesse Lee home. He requested the property be given to him so he could pursue grants and begin restoring the property. In response to Council Member Clark, Bonaud stated that he had restored many historic properties and held an Associate's Degree.

Blatchford requested a current status report on the Jesse Lee home from the Administration.

Approval of agenda and consent agenda